

inPUBLIC NYC

sharing international discourse with New York City

Through this New York City-based program, CEC ArtsLink engages local communities in the international discourse that we have been fostering for nearly fifty years. Our broad network of international artists and excellent roster of local partners form unique synergies resulting in exciting collaborations, workshops, readings, exhibitions, films and performances and bringing the wide range of cultural insights to the communities in the five boroughs.

One Big City

Spring 2012 - Fall 2013

A pilot series of collaborative residencies and events to engage New York's thriving diasporas through the innovative perspectives of local and international artists.

Public Events in New York

Ongoing

New work by US and international artists, writers, poets, filmmakers, dancers and theater professionals.

Publicly Creative

May 9-16, 2011

A public art workshop for New York artists with curator and public art expert Kendal Henry.

FlipFEST!

November 22, 2008

Experimental post-genre performances by ArtsLink awardees from New York and overseas. Co-produced by GOH Productions.

FlipSIDE

Winter 2004-2005

An exhibition of artwork by thirty-four ArtsLink awardees from across the US, Central and Eastern Europe and Russia.